• A genuine leader is not a searcher for consensus but a molder of consensus. • A man can't ride your back unless it's bent. • A man who won't die for something is not fit to live. • A nation that continues year after year to spend more money on military defense than on programs of social uplift is approaching spiritual doom. • A right delayed is a right denied. • A riot is at bottom the language of the unheard. • All labor that uplifts humanity has dignity and importance and should be undertaken with painstaking excellence. • All progress is precarious, and the solution of one problem brings us face to face with another problem. • Almost always, the creative dedicated minority has made the world better. • An individual has not started living until he can rise above the narrow confines of his individualistic concerns to the broader concerns of all humanity. • An individual who breaks a law that conscience tells him is unjust, and who willingly accepts the penalty of imprisonment in order to arouse the conscience of the community over its injustice, is in reality expressing the highest respect for the law. • Change does not roll in on the wheels of inevitability, but comes through continuous struggle. • And so we must straighten our backs and work for our freedom. • Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that. • Every man must decide whether he will walk in the light of creative altruism or in the darkness of destructive selfishness. • Faith is taking the first step even when you don't see the whole staircase. • Freedom is never voluntarily given by the oppressor; it must be demanded by the oppressed. • Have we not come to such an impasse in the modern world that we must love our enemies - or else? The chain reaction of evil - hate begetting hate, wars producing more wars - must be broken, or else we shall be plunged into the dark abyss of annihilation. • He who passively accepts evil is as much involved in it as he who helps to perpetrate it. He who accepts evil without protesting against it is really cooperating with it. • Human salvation lies in the hands of the creatively maladjusted. • I am not interested in power for power's sake, but I'm interested in power that is moral, that is right and that is good. • I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word in reality. This is why right, temporarily defeated, is stronger than evil triumphant.
