Atty. General charges state’s largest foreclosure law firms with fraud

$13 Million Settlement with Aronowitz & Mecklenburg secured

ColAttyGen 7/16 — Colorado Attorney General John Suthers on Wednesday announced the filing of civil law enforcement actions against the two largest foreclosure law firms in Colorado. In separate filings, the Attorney General’s Consumer Protection Section charged The Castle Law Group, its principals and affiliated foreclosure-related businesses, as well as Aronowitz & Mecklenburg, its principals and affiliated foreclosure-related businesses with violating the Colorado Consumer Protection Act, the Colorado Antitrust Act, and the Colorado Fair Debt Collection Practices Act. The Attorney General filed a simultaneous proposed Final Consent Judgment settling the case against the Aronowitz defendants.

“These lawsuits come at the end of a lengthy and exhaustive investigation into allegedly fraudulent billing practices by these firms that inflated foreclosure costs,” said Attorney General John Suthers. “These inflated costs were passed on to homeowners trying to save their homes from foreclosure, successful bidders for properties at foreclosure sales, and to investors and taxpayers. The facts uncovered by our investigation are very disturbing and, frankly, reflect poorly on the legal profession.”

The complaints, filed in Denver District Court, allege that these law firms, and their principals, conspired to charge fraudulent and inflated costs for posting of two statutorily-mandated notices on the homes of borrower’s facing foreclosure, and used affiliated companies to run up the costs of title products used in the foreclosures. The complaints also allege that these firms improperly and deceptively tacked on additional charges as “costs” for tasks already compensated by the maximum allowable fee paid to the law firm by the investor.

In the proposed Final Consent Judgment with the Aronowitz defendants, the law firm and its principals agree that, with the exception of some title business that they must operate at competitive market rates, to have no direct or indirect ownership interest in any law firm or other business engaged in foreclosure-related work in the State of Colorado for a period of nine years, and to pay the state $10 million in unjust enrichment, civil penalties, and the state’s costs and attorney fees. An additional $3 million in civil penalties is to be suspended pending compliance with the Final Consent Judgment. The court must approve that settlement before it becomes effective.

Investigations by the Colorado Attorney General’s Office of other Colorado foreclosure law firms and related businesses are ongoing.

Address: 501 North Elizabeth, Pueblo, Colorado 81003
Petition for Appointment of Guardian
The outcome of this proceeding may limit or completely take away the Respondent's right to make decisions about the Respondent's personal affairs or financial affairs or both. The Respondent must appear in person unless excused by the court. The Petitioner is required to make reasonable efforts to help the Respondent attend the hearing.
The Respondent has the right to be represented by an attorney of the Respondent's choice at the Respondent's expense. If the Respondent cannot afford an attorney, one may be appointed for the Respondent at State expense. The Respondent may request a professional evaluation. The Respondent has the right to present evidence and subpoena witnesses and documents; examine witnesses, including any court-appointed physician, psychologist, or other qualified individual providing evaluations, and the court visitor; and otherwise participate in the hearing. The Respondent may ask that the hearing be held in a manner that reasonably accommodates the Respondent. The Respondent has the right to request that the hearing be closed, but the hearing may not be closed over the Respondent's objection.
