"Dog Days"

and then...State Fair August 28 - September 7
Sept. 7 - Labor Day

Surveys to be conducted Aug. 18 at Judicial Bldg.

ColJudicial 8/14 – People with business at the Pueblo Combined Court on Tuesday, Aug. 18, will be asked to participate in a program designed to help ensure the Colorado Judicial Department is providing the best service possible to the public.

Throughout the day, court employees at the new Judicial Bldg., 501 N. Elizabeth St. in Pueblo, will ask people exiting the building to fill out brief, anonymous survey forms asking about their experiences as jurors, parties to a case or as recipients of other Judicial Department services. Survey forms will be available in English and Spanish.

In addition, attorneys, law enforcement officers and anyone else who does business with the courts is encouraged to participate.

Similar surveys have been conducted in the past in Pueblo, most recently in 2012. Since 2007, surveys have been conducted at least once in each of Colorado's 22 judicial districts.

The surveys measure public opinion about access to and fairness of the courts. Questions include whether people felt safe in the building, whether they could easily understand the forms they needed, and whether they felt their case was handled in a fair manner. Participants also are asked whether they felt the judicial officer listened to them and had all the necessary information before making a decision, and whether they felt they were treated with courtesy and given clear information about the next step in their case.

During Fiscal Year 2014, 8,476 cases were filed in District Court in the 10th Judicial District (Pueblo County), and 16,442 cases were filed in Pueblo County Court.
